

TIO Networks is a multi-channel real time bill payment processor serving communication, utility and other North American bill issuers. Through one integration TIO provides access to multiple payment solutions including: mobile phone payments, self-serve payment kiosks, clerk assisted payment networks, internet and phone payments. TIO's walk up payment network includes approximately 60,000 end points.