

TFCC's inbound High Volume Call Answering (HVCA) solution fields heavy incoming call traffic associated with outages. Mutual Assistance for Call Centers (MARS) makes it possible for utilities to help each other with outage management. TFCC's mass notification system uses proactive outbound calling for collection calls, critical customer care alerts and a host of other uses.